

Sally Wood Nalvai

I was raised by my grand aunt who brought me to Oahu when I was ten years-old, I was born on Maui. Pua Haakeo sister and I were great pals. So one day we gathered some children and decided to put on a concert for the Mormon Church. So we went down to Punahoa, put together a little shack, decorated it w/ greens and put on the show with Pua Haakeo sister and I providing the music w/our ukuleles. The funny thing was neither of us was trained ~~to teach~~ or authorized to teach. But the parents and children were so happy. I was 14 years old. I lived in Kahana Bay until A got married. ~~And this became a benefit for the Kahana Bay Community then the Mormon Church.~~

Kealea Kanahelo and Katie Nakaula had the same style of dancing from what I could see.
Luy Munson - 1 year, kahilo
Henry Pa - auna

Pua Haakeo - 6 months, every day, I really admired him.

Katie & Kealea would sit alongside Luy & work w/ Luy.

Olapa dancing ~~was the~~ → olapa dancers → kahilo
